

Antique 19th-century Victorian Bracelet With Coral Cameos

270 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Coral

Length : 17 cm

Width : 2,3 cm

Description

This Victorian bracelet from the second half of the 19th century is crafted from gold-plated metal, a common jewelry material of the period, and coral cameos.

The bracelet features three parallel links and a hidden clasp.

The main cameo is oval in shape and features the profile of a woman, likely a mythological figure or a classical portrait, surrounded by an elaborate and finely crafted frame.

Two smaller cameos, one on each side of the center piece, also feature the profile of a female figure and are set in similar oval frames.

The combination of gold-plated metal and red coral cameos creates a vivid color contrast that was highly prized in the Victorian era. This type of jewelry was often worn for formal events or as

Dealer

Mercantedarte Antichità

Antiquités objets d'art italien

Mobile : 00 39 348 510 1428

via dei Coronari 136

Rome 00186

a statement accessory, reflecting the predilection for classical motifs and detailed craftsmanship typical of the period.

The gilding is in good condition, with only minor age-related color loss, as shown in the photos.

The central element measures:

2.3 x 1.7 cm

The two side elements measure:

1.3 x 0.7 cm

I'm also on Instagram:

"mercantedarteroma"