

F. Barbedienne 'le Petit Pêcheur Napolitain'

850 EUR

Signature : F. Rude

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Description

François RUDE (1784-1855), THE LITTLE NEAPOLITAN FISHERMAN, 1833 Bronze group with golden patina. Mechanical reduction stamp Collas and mark on the terrace 'F. BARBEDIENNE founder.' On the reverse, it shows the references 'AA/69'. Old edition print around 1860. Ht 16 x 17,5 cm Ferdinand Barbedienne partnered with Achille Collas in 1838, founding the company A. Collas & Barbedienne, for the production and marketing of reduced copies of sculptures using various materials, such as alabaster, wood, bronze, ivory or soapstone. They reproduce, in bronze and in reduction, a large number of sculpted works, preserved in European museums, intended to adorn modern interiors. Moreover, they developed new processes
<https://www.proantic.com/en/1608117-f-barbedienne-039le-petit-pecheur-napolitainquot.html>

Dealer

Fourrel de Frettes

Antiquites de le Breche, Bazas 33430

Mobile : 06 07 34 10 82

7 rue Théophile Serviere, Bazas 33430

Bazas 33430