Description

This magnificent bronze, titled 'The Gleaner', is a masterpiece by the renowned French sculptor Eugène-Antoine Aizelin (1821-1902). Crafted with exceptional craftsmanship, this sculpture captures the understated beauty of a woman holding a sheaf of wheat in her hand, while she carries a staff with a bundle over her shoulder. The high-quality bronze has a rich, warm brown patina that beautifully accentuates the fine details of her clothing and the serene expression on her face. Note the careful finishing touches, from the folds of her clothing to the delicate locks beneath her headscarf. The sculpture exudes a sense of calm and dignity, characteristic of Aizelin's realistic style. The authenticity of this collectible piece is confirmed by the signature 'E. AIZELIN' on the base. This sculpture is not only a
