Description

Superb rectangular liqueur cellar in rosewood inlaid with a light net, resting on a flat base and fitted with a lock on the front. Inside, it reveals an elegant complete liqueur kit: 4 square decanters with cut sides with cut stoppers, 16 finely cut liqueur glasses, resting on side pivoting shelves. The glassware, in cut crystal, is of great finesse and in very good condition. The box, when closed, presents a sober elegance with its beautiful veneer of precious wood with warm reflections. It has two secret caches. A very beautiful object of collection and conviviality, representative of the refinement of the art of living in the 19th century.???? Dimensions: H: 23.5cm W: 32cm D: 23.5cm???? Key present, good functioning of the lock. One glass to repair, neck of a decanter slightly chipped.
