Description

Charming little bedside table in flamed mahogany enhanced with brass fillets, solid top, spacer shelf, a high drawer and a drop-down door; sheathed feet, bronze sabots, gilded front flanges, tops of the feet ringed with bronze; hand-held handle tightening a "stick", bronze button. This piece of furniture from the very end of the 18th century is elegant and refined, carefully designed on an oak mount, its life gives it allure with its patina; a piece easy to place on all sides (veneered back), useful for the living room because ideal for a sofa end among other things.... Quality furniture with fine grain whose careful design in a varnished Cuban mahogany has a beautiful color and a very pretty glaze. Stable, functional, elegant for a tasteful "Neo-classical" interior, its measured proportion makes it an easy
