Description

Two charming giltwood sconces in the shape of a quiver, Louis XVI style, mid-20th century. Each piece represents a quiver filled with arrows, decorated with a ribbon holding a bow. Carved poplar wood and gilded paint; beautiful work of twisted fluting and leafy endings. One of the sconces formerly electrified, the system of which is now obsolete. The other sconces still has the label of the manufacturing house, specialized in framing and carved and gilded wood. As written: GILDING FRAMING Former Maison Paulmier Successor G. Vigneron 10, rue Caumartin Paris 9th. Two brass suspension rings on the back. Scattered chips in the paint, see the detailed photos. Delivery: EUR15 for mainland France. Other destinations: contact me.
