Description

An important piece of decoration that this "generous crow" in solid wood assembled and sculpted with brilliance, large size this piece in decoration under beam is a remarkable baroque element of the XVIIth century. Generous piece of wood assembled and worked in a monumental and very skillful sculpture with beautiful proportions and a neat finish, this acanthus leaf with scroll is perfect to compose a console of wall lamp opulent and generous by its size and its shape. A healthy and very appropriate element for a decoration, with a range of possibilities whether it is utilitarian or simply a decorative element, a piece not parasitized and with the patina of time, a beautiful element of curiosity,
