Description

Nicolas Carrega (1914-1993) Oil on canvas entitled "la verrine rouge" signed on the front Carrega and dated on the back (19)55 This work is very representative of the artist's work in the mid-1950s with a very frank chromatic range and although figurative, we can already see the abstract turn that Nicolas Carrega will take from 1958. Dimensions: Height: 60cm Width: 49cm Shipping by protected parcel via the post Nicolas Carrega, Painter, Sculptor, Engraver, Medalist, was born on February 21, 1914 in Bonifacio, Corsica, and died on January 29, 1993 in Versailles. His life is divided between the Mediterranean and the English Channel. These two poles of attraction will be a constant source of inspiration and creativity for all his work. Figurative until the end of the 1950s, he gradually
