Description

The Series 7(TM) chair is an icon in the history of modern furniture, designed by Arne Jacobsen in 1955. Its form is timeless and incredibly versatile, with a unique character and exceptional comfort. Despite its slender form, this chair is designed to combine strength, flexibility, and durability. It rests on its original casters and its original black faux leather is in very good condition. It is a truly iconic design, a true mid-century classic.
