Description

Stationary racehorse. This exceptional bronze sculpture by Louis Alfred Joseph Cuvelier depicts a racehorse in mid-stride, captured in a moment of intense energy and motion. Cast by the renowned foundry H. Luppens in Brussels, this piece showcases the artist's masterful ability to convey the power and grace of the animal. The horse's muscular form is beautifully rendered, and the patina gives the bronze a rich, warm hue. The sculpture is a testament to Cuvelier's talent and his contributions to the world of equestrian art. Casting stamp of H. LUPPENS in Brussels.
