Description

Bust of a young woman representing the allegory of Hope. Signed: F. Richard; Salon des Beaux-Arts. Felix Pierre Richard - French sculptor born in 1848. Known for his figurative sculptures in bronze and terracotta. He was particularly fond of representations of women with a delicate and somewhat melancholic nature. In 1890, he exhibited his works at the Universal Exhibition, where he won an honorable mention. He is the author of the marble bust of Monseigneur Laurencin in the church of La Tronche. France, 19th/20th century. Patinated bronze. Dimensions: 56 cm x 28 cm x 17 cm. Very good condition.
