Considered the most versatile and elusive of the gods, with a Greek equivalent in Dionysus, Bacchus is often associated with the Roman god of wine Liber Pater. He brings joy wherever he goes, but if he is upset, he can be a vengeful god, driving people to madness. Ernest Appolinaire Damé born October 1, 1845 in Saint-Florentin (Yonne) and died November 22, 1920 in Paris, is a French sculptor. The Monument to Claude Chappe (1893), Paris,
