Description

"Nuba Mountain", sacred and magical mountain of the Nubas people of Eastern Sudan. Populated by wild animals and birds, legend has it that it protects and defends its inhabitants against aggressors. Illustrated by Sefinin (IA kwuni) in 1997, this beautiful silk twill square with hand-rolled edges and rust-colored borders is available in a range of bright and well-saturated colors. The title of this illustration appears at the top right, the name of the Maison Hermès at the bottom right near the illustrator's signature, the copyright at the top left. It is sold in its original box and still bears its manufacturing label. Dimensions: 90 x 90 cms. No holes, no stains, no pulled threads. Very good condition of conservation and use both in terms of silk and colors, see details in the photos. Free shipping for
