Description

Sorry, No Export shipping for the moment.Beautiful green goatskin wallet, rectangular, it opens into many pockets, it is signed by Brot papetier, rue de l'école de Médecine in Paris who patented it: in a backrest reinforced with gilded brass corners slips a small waterproof inkwell, gilded brass, a notebook, above a silver mechanical pencil with perpetual calendar, (missing the lead) Ideal for a country doctor of period. Once closed, everything slips into an interesting soft pouch of same leather, two pockets and two anti-loss flaps, with 80cm strap, allowing attachment under clothing... We can imagine the interest of these precautions for stagecoach travel and their promiscuity. Good general condition, with wear, we see that the object has been used... 16cm x 10cm, and 18cm x
