

Large Heraldic Coat Of Arms Carved In Marble

6 000 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

Imposing finely sculpted stone heraldic coat of arms, depicting an elaborate scrolled shield centered by a rampant dragon modeled in high relief, a symbol of strength and protection. The shield is surmounted by a plumed helmet of Renaissance/Baroque style, from which cartouches and decorative flourishes emanate which enrich the entire composition. The lower part is embellished with an angelic mask with a seraphic face and spread wings, framed by two elegant lateral volutes that act as an ornamental base. The work combines heraldic elements and allegorical motifs with great technical expertise, underlining the importance of the client and the family prestige. Dragon Family, 17th century.
