Description

Elegant and authentic, this 17th-century single-door bonnet cabinet from Haute-Auvergne embodies all the charm of French regional furniture. Originally designed to carefully preserve bonnets and headdresses, it illustrates remarkable craftsmanship. Entirely herringbone, without any nails, it reflects the tradition of custom-made furniture, at a time when each creation was unique. Made of natural wood, in the spirit of refined folk furniture, it combines rusticity and nobility, testifying to the quality of bourgeois manufacturing.
