Description

Very fine gouache on paper by Jakob EGGER (c.1770-1842) View of Mont Blanc from Gaillard with the Môle, THE NAZ TOWER AND THE STÉPHANE HESSEL PAVILION (CHÂTEAU DE GAILLARD) THE NAZ TOWER represents the last trace of the properties of the de la Naz family whose houses were ruined. It was rebuilt above underground vaulted rooms from the 14th century, a sort of entrenchment that belonged to the original tower.
