Description

Rare and elegant baluster vase with a square neck, in multilayered glass with a naturalistic décor of Bryonia dioica, circa 1910. Design by Henri Bergé. The leaves and stems, finely acid-etched, are delicately highlighted with green enamel, creating a subtle interplay of tones. The background, enlivened with internal and external vitrified powders, adds remarkable pictorial depth. The red berries are represented by charming applied glass cabochons, hot-worked onto the surface. Signature: acid-engraved "Daum Nancy" with the Cross of Lorraine. Condition: Excellent condition, with a few minor scratches underneath the base. Dimensions: Height 26.8 cm. Period: 1905-1910. Reference: 79.
