Description

We present this antique Italian sideboard, crafted in walnut veneer in the late 19th century. This tall sideboard is composed of two distinct parts, allowing for easy movement. The upper part features striking decorated glass doors. Inside, there are two useful shelves. The lower part features wooden doors and an internal shelf. There are also two practical drawers, providing additional storage for smaller items such as cutlery. The interior is lined with paper that may have some signs of wear. We can replace it for you, but you must request it before ordering. Aesthetically, this sideboard has a very simple line, free of excessive ornamentation. The top cornice has a distinctive curved shape that sweeps upward. Also, note the beautiful grain of the walnut wood, which stands out against a light
