Description

Polychrome carved wooden statue representing Saint Mary Magdalene* in prayer kneeling on a cushion, from the 18th century. This statue is in good general condition, superb quality. It is very decorative, the polychromy is still very vivid. Please note: missing the right hand, some cracks and accidents on the wood, some lack of polychromy, wear of time, see photos. * Mary Magdalene: Mary Magdalene, Mary Magdalene or Madeleine, called Mary Magdalene in the Gospels is a disciple of Jesus who follows him until his last days. The four Gospels designate her as the first witness of the Resurrection, who is responsible for warning the apostles. Christian tradition and iconography draw on these canonical and apocryphal texts to give several faces of Mary Magdalene, first the spiritual wife
