Description

Rare and in an optimal state of preservation, magnificent Tülü from Bergama in Turkey. In Turkish "tül" means strand, strand of wool in this case. This type of piece is rather rare. On one side, we observe a surface with long flamboyant strands of wool incorporated into the weft threads. On the other, we find a flat-woven kilim. The colors are 100% vegetable in tones of indigo blue and madder red. Also note the presence of knotted horizontal bands. Mixed technique. Wool on wool. Circa 1880. Very good condition. Dim: 215 x 160 cm
