Condition : En l'etat

Material : Stone

Diameter : 16

Height : 27

Description

Limestone sculpture depicting the head of a putto, with soft features and curly hair. The model is inspired by Renaissance and Baroque examples, but it is a 20th-century reproduction, most likely dating between the 1940s and 1970s. The surface shows natural erosion and an even patina, indicating age and exposure. The sculpture is mounted on a modern stone and iron base, allowing it to be displayed as a decorative or collectible piece. Material: carved limestone Dimensions: total height 27 cm; width 16 cm; base 12 × 12 cm Period: 20th-century reproduction in Renaissance/Baroque style Condition: good, with minor wear and small losses consistent with age For further information, high-resolution photographs or technical details, please do not hesitate to contact us.
