Description

Rare pair of covered ceramic (faïence) vases, monogram of Joseph Gaspard Robert - Faïencerie de Marseille, ca. 1760-18th century. This beautiful set is sold as is -- it can be restored (one handle reglued and one lid missing). Joseph-Gaspard Robert (1722-1799) Joseph-Gaspard Robert founded his factory in 1754. This production is part of the Marseille context of the 18th century, also dominated by the factory of the Veuve Perrin (Marie-Rose Perrin, active from 1748 to 1803), known for its translucent enamels and hand-painted floral decorations. Their productions share strong similarities: camaïeu decorations, polychromes, gilding, turned forms, etc. Trained as a painter before running his own factory, Robert developed a production of earthenware decorated with polychrome and gilded motifs,
