Description

Mirror with glazing beads from the Napoleon III period. The decoration is based on: palmettes, foliage, bases, interlacing, roses... the alternating full and empty presents a contrast and a typical appearance of this period. This diamond point shape is enhanced by this large pediment and enhanced by its apron. The embossed brass has been cleaned and varnished just like the lacquer. It fits equally well in a modern world as in an old interior. Delivery possible not included in the price
