Beautiful hanging lantern with a brass frame and four trapezoidal clear glass panels, adorned at each of the four corners with slender twisted columns. At the center, a single light source with an E14 socket. The brass shows slight surface oxidation, and some metal parts do not fit perfectly (see last photos), but these are truly minimal flaws. Shipping note: due to the extreme fragility of the item, shipping can only be carried out in a crate in which the lantern will be suspended; the crate can travel only when placed on a pallet, thus ensuring optimal protection during transport.
