Mixed media and sand on canvas Dimensions: canvas 67 × 50 cm -- framed 77.5 × 59.5 cm
Signature: bottom left "Zine 95" Original work by Zine Abdelouahab representing a traditional blue door, framed by a wall of stones and patinated plaster. The artist, a master in the integration of natural materials, uses here a carefully selected sand of which each grain has been subjected to a precise temperature to obtain the desired shade. This unique technique gives the surface a tactile relief and a visual warmth, evoking sunny walls and the authentic texture of Mediterranean facades. The fineness of the details and the harmony of ochres and blues give this work a character that is both poetic and timeless.
