Description

Beautiful and comfortable pair of Louis XV style cabriolets in light beech covered with a tapestry in the style of a sowing of small square dots. With a harmonious and solid curve, well assembled and with a sober and elegant molding, these pretty living room seats are generous and comfortable. The tradition well respected by their style, robust and comfortable these two armchairs have everything to seduce starting with the price, the absence of flowery rejoins makes them sober and elegant at the same time, the movement of the feet, the belt of the backrest and the armrests give an impression of lightness while refinement. The two pieces have been treated to avoid unpleasant surprises; They are decorative and in good general condition, ready to be used again, the upholstery is still solid and has not sagged, so
