Description

Charming reliquary shrine in carved walnut, overall work from the end of the 19th century, protected by a glass pane on the front. The wax seals deprived of their cords on the back prove the desecration of the whole. Stable whole, some wood-eating holes and slight snags. Later reassembly of the "roof", the wood of which has been worked over time. Height 34 cm / Length 24.5 cm / Depth 17

cm. _____ For any questions relating to this announcement and to know the delivery terms, do not hesitate to contact us.
