Description

Sober and elegant slender bedside table on sheathed legs, walnut top, like the entire structure on all sides; it opens on the front with a bronze button opening a vertical curtain and is accompanied above by a drawer moved in the same way. Designed with care in a beautiful tight vein at the end of the 18th century, it has the simplicity of Directoire furniture. Preserved from time without parasites, it is a pretty blond color and its heart vein is tight, more in burl on the top while the structure is in elongated fiber; its proportion is ideal for any use as a sofa end or a simple small entrance furniture, this does not prevent it from joining its friend the bed... A pretty patina and a wood chosen for this functional decorative piece of furniture and in very good condition...
