Marcel Basler (1917-1990) is a French painter.

Until the end of the sixties, Marcel Basler's work was essentially figurative and was expressed in gouaches as well as watercolors and oil paintings. From the 70s, turning away from the field which had been his until then and which had opened many doors for him, he turned exclusively towards abstract art, and it is tormented works which mark this last period of his life. The photos are an integral part of the description. For the condition, please detail the photos. Dimensions: Frame Height: 49 cm Width: 57.5 cm Canvas
