Description

Baccarat vase in the shape of a baluster, wheel-engraved and hand-painted in gold on blue crystal with a Japanese-style decoration of pairs of waders and plant motifs. They are sacred animals in Japan and symbolize fidelity, peace, luck, and longevity. The gilt bronze frame of the vase features the motif of cherry blossom branches. In very good condition, some wear on the gilt. This model was designed around 1880 and does not bear the Baccarat stamp, which appeared in 1936 on productions to replace the traditional label that served as a signature. Measurements: height 28cm, width 14cm, depth: 10cm
