

Spanish Nasrid Ear Dagger

35 000 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Metal

Length : 35 cm

Description

Spanish Nasrid Ear Dagger Likely the work of the 18th to 19th century, however it is also possible it is older. Eared dagger similar to the work of Diego Caias (Spain, period of activity: 1535-1549) Frame in damascened iron, ivory and silver. Slice of apparent silk blackened and damascened with gold decorated with foliage, flanked by two silver plates decorated with lines forming the interior ears at the level of the pommel. Set adorned on both sides with riveted ivory plates studded with silver. Straight double-edged blade, median edge and ricasso, damascened with gold decorations foliage. Provenance: purchase from Olivier Hoare. Piece presented in a box lined with black velvet. Specifications Length 35 cm <https://antiquesarmoury.com/product/spanish->

Dealer

Antiques Armoury

Antiques and Collectables

Tel : 0035699849540

Triq Enrico Naudi

L'iklin IKL Malta 1641

nasrid-ear-dagger/