Description

Long length of cotton printed with floral motifs. Industrial penetrating print, polychrome in vivid tones, on soft and very lightweight cotton. The print, almost identical on the front and reverse, recalls in its quality and chromatic depth certain productions inspired by wax prints, although the naturalistic floral design suggests European industrial manufacture.

Probably produced in the 1970s-1980s, a period marked by a strong enthusiasm for exotic fabrics and highly saturated prints.

Condition: very good overall condition, fresh colours, unused fabric.
