Description

Uncommon and beautiful pair of fixed under glass in a patinated pearl gilt wood frame, representing intimate scenes of attentive Women and children and Man with his head in his hands sitting at a desk, lamenting, poignant scenes of a Romantic realism very fashionable in the middle of the 19th century from the Reign of Louis-Philippe to the Second Empire of Napoleon III. A decorative pendant finely made in light colors and presented with black margins with lace frames in bright gold. This elaborate technique in vogue at this time sends us back to the mystery, in a singular atmosphere, one which questions the soul, completely in the Romantic spirit by the desired effect, in their original frames these two paintings are decorative and in good condition ...
