Description

Antique English porcelain chamberstick by Minton, c.1820. Tree-form stem with ring handle and leaf drip tray; small candle cup above; girl with basket of flowers to the front; applied blossoms on a rococo base. Clean white glaze and the classic "Minton" face. Bears a crossed-swords-type painted mark in blue, a very rare early Minton detail recorded in the 1820s. Old label shadow to the underside. Collectors prize the early date, compact go-to-bed format and intact floral work--an excellent, rare and antique cabinet piece for a focused Minton or early English porcelain collection.
