Description

A Large Antique Victorian Silver Plated Corinthian Column Table Lamp Ca 19th C This antique table lamp features a prominent Corinthian column design, crafted from silver-plated material. It showcases a fluted column shaft rising from a multi-tiered, square base, which often incorporates decorative elements like a central wreath medallion. The column is crowned by an elaborate Corinthian capital, characterized by its classical acanthus leaf ornamentation. The lamp is designed to hold a light source at its apex, reflecting a style popular in the Victorian era, particularly around the late 19th century when many such pieces were converted from oil lamps to electricity. Its construction reflects a period aesthetic, emphasizing classical architectural forms and the
