Description

"Large XXL Tabriz Shah Abbas Emerald Green Rug 520x350 cm" Important and large "Shah Abbas" Tabriz rug from a castle in Belgium. Semi-antique (Northwest Iran) circa 1940. Beautiful design (without a central medallion), a unique emerald green color, very rare in Tabriz rugs. On an emerald field, a scattering of "Shah Abbas" flower palmettes, foliage twisted in the shape of stylized diamonds. Seven borders, including the main one in ruby, decorated with a polychrome motif reminiscent of the central field. Shah Abbas rugs feature a border depicting a vine and flowers with a field of elaborate palmettes of angular blooms and vines. These rugs are called "Shah Abbas" after the Iranian monarch of that name who reigned from 1587 to 1629 AD. Shah Abbas was
