Description

Walnut bar from the Art Deco period. The rounded cut sides are enhanced by the top, which follows the same shape. The curved edge of the flamed top further enhances its cubist line. The counter-grained sides are enhanced by the amarante and boxwood fillets. The doors and the flap offer continuity in the vein of flamed walnut. The casters offer even more functionality. Its sobriety and functionality give it all its modernity. Delivery possible, not included in the price.
