Description

Very elegant Louis XVI period chest of drawers in veneered wood with simulated fluting and fillet decorations opening with three main drawers and resting on four sheathed feet. The originality of this chest of drawers lies in its small secret drawer located in the lower part. The gray veined marble top is in perfect condition. The pull handles are in bronze. This chest of drawers bears the COURTE stamp for Jean-baptiste Courte, cabinetmaker received master in 1777 in Dijon.
