

Bronze And Siena Marble Letter Rack - Empire Restoration Period - Circa 1820

210 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Description

Rare Empire style letter holder with neoclassical trophy decoration in patinated bronze and yellow Siena marble. This refined desk accessory has the same function as a "toast rack" on a breakfast table: to store envelopes, or franked mail that the servant will take after the master's departure to entrust to the Post Office. Charles X period, early 19th century circa 1820. Rare collector's item, ideal to complete an early 19th century office decor, one of those small details that make an authentic decoration. Very good condition, micro chips in the corners, the central rod is missing.
Width: 14cm Height: 19.5cm
