Description

No Export for this. Beautiful flared copper bucket, with two strong side handles, the body mounted with a hammer all in one piece, rests on a plinth in a band, two buttresses as well as the upper edge and the plinth are engraved with a scalloped decoration. The underside of the container, now deformed and patched, was hammered concave, forming a cap allowing women to carry the ferrat full of water, placed on a head cushion, or hip, halfway up. Capacity: 10 to 15 liters. Our ferrat is superb, very good quality, the engravings enrich its appearance. Provence or Languedoc, 18th century, beautiful folk art, the patina is just waiting to sing. Poor condition, all dented, worn and patched, but very beautiful appearance, Dimensions = 36cm and 28cmH. Weight: 3.5kg This item is for immediate purchase, payable by
