Description

Front divided into four paneled drawers, the first of which can be folded forward, concealing a tripartite chest of drawers inside, made up of six paneled drawers all fitted with the original lock. Walnut top, ending in an elegant owl's beak and longitudinally divided into two halves, hinged together which give it the possibility of being opened and giving access to the aforementioned chest of drawers and to the support surface formed by the demolition of the front of the first drawer in horizontal position. Sides framed by lively framing. Flattened onion front feet (typical of the late 17th - early 18th century period). The piece of furniture is in perfect condition and has a splendid original patina. This type of chest of drawers, undoubtedly the most precious of the period, were often used as writing desks. The space that was formed when the chest of drawers was "open" became a perfect surface on which to lean to read or write. The size of the drawers inside the chest of drawers was often calculated on the size of the sheets they were supposed to contain. Lombardy, late 17th century - early 18th century. Measurements: 102 x 147 x 71 cm. The work, like all our other objects, is sold accompanied by certificates of authenticity and lawful origin. We personally take care of and organize the packing and shipping of the works of art with insurance all over the world. If the work is purchased by non-Italian customers, it will require the certificate of free circulation. The same can be obtained in 10/20 working days. The gallery will take care of the bureaucratic and economic aspects of the matter. All costs of the operation are therefore included in the price.
