

Pair Of 18-carat (750 ?) Yellow Gold Earrings, Period 1840-1860.

3 900 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Gold

Description

Charming model adorned with half seed pearls highlighted by delicate black enamel, typical of mid-19th century elegance.

French work, eagle's head hallmark.

Beautifully crafted, these earrings feature a clever system: the lower part is detachable, allowing them to be worn in a more discreet manner for everyday use.

Total weight: 15.5 g

In remarkable condition - a very fine and versatile piece of collectible jewelry.
