Description

Large 18th century Flemish cabinet in light oak and ebony inlay pattern. In 2 parts the top with many drawers and the bottom for carrying, very heavy piece of furniture! The flap is a sort of 3D ebony marquetry but the previous owner had removed it to transform it into a drawer cabinet, which is much more modern and nice in my opinion too, but the flap is there. It is in good condition, one or two small parts to be plugged which were used to hold the flap, it remained several years in my shed so the patina needs to be redone. It is in total 1.58 high by 61 deep and 144 wide, the upper cabinet is 97 high. I am emptying my stocks at low prices!!
