Description

We present this interesting master's chest of drawers, curved in the Louis XV style in solid walnut. Absolutely perfectly in its original condition, a small restoration is to be expected on the central drawer, the interiors are mounted with dovetails. These miniature pieces of furniture were nothing more nor less than CAPs of the time and the students had to do their utmost to be able to claim their end of apprenticeship. Good general condition despite the small restoration to be expected. Shipping extra (E24)
