Description

Beautiful antique embroidered flag, belonging to the Theaterverein Concordia Haaren, a theater and cultural society founded in 1902. Front: symbolic representation inspired by Antiquity, with a figure holding a lyre (symbol of art and music) and a laurel wreath (symbol of glory and honor). Back: crest with the inscription "THV Concordia Haaren 1902" and the motto: "Wo vereinte Kräfte walten, kann nur Großes sich gestalten" (where forces are united, only great things can be achieved). Handcrafted with great finesse, richly embroidered with gold and colored threads. Rare item, ideal for collectors of antique textiles, lovers of the history of Germanic cultural societies or vintage decoration.
