

---

Sword- Nap III° - II° Empire- Called Of Magistrate - Poinçon "f. D" De Delacour - XIX°

720 EUR

Signature : Poinçon : " F . D " pour DELACOUR , fourbisseur de NAPOLEON III° - II° Empire.

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Metal

Length : 95 cm -- lame : 79 cm

Width : lame au talon : 2 cm

Description
-------------

Sword of the 2nd Empire under NAP III. known as Magitrat, 19th century. Hallmark under the shell "FD" between two sabers for DELACOUR, furnisher of NAP III, for this beautiful sword of high officials of the state and high magistrates under the II° Empire. Original joint arc, in the form of a rosary with two rows of metal beads, which start from the pommel to the end of the quillon. Tri-lobed clover pommel struck with the imperial eagle on thunderbolt, surmounted by the diamond-shaped rivet button. Fuse decorated alternately with gilded and chiseled blades with a floral decoration and plain steel blades. Left quillon on the rosary side slightly inclined downwards. Straight right quillon, both with floral decorations. Cruiser knot with steel diamond. Key with the imperial eagle on

Dealer
--------

Le Lys et l'Epée

Art premier, Memento Mori, Judaica, Maçonnique, Militaria, Bijoux, Mode

Tonnay-Charente 17430

thunderbolt cut and gilded, framed by curvilinear steel bands and two steel diamonds. Blade with triangular section with hollow sides with its scarlet tie present.Length: 95 cmsLength of the blade: 79 cmsWidth of the blade at the heel: 2 cmsWithout scabbardVery good condition of conservation and use, in its own juice, see details on the photos.Free shipping for FranceInternational shipping costs, price on request depending on the area of the countryVisit my other objects by consulting my gallery, and our site: <https://www.IrisAntik.com>