

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

"what The Bottle Matters" Illustrated By Catherine Baschet In 1988 For The House Of Hermes In Paris

330 EUR

Signature : Illustratrice Catherine BASCHET en 1988 pour la
Maison " HERMES " à PARIS

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Silk

Length : 90 x 90 cm

Description

"What does the bottle matter, as long as we have the intoxication", this beautiful quote from Alfred de Musset draws us into the circle of perfume bottles, all existing Hermès. This beautiful silk twill square with hand-rolled edges is available on a royal blue background and navy blue borders. This illustration by Catherine Baschet was published in 1988 and reissued in 1997, which has recreated the beauty of perfume bottles created over time. The title appears centered at the top and bottom of the square, the copyright on the left. It still bears its manufacturing label. Dimensions: 90 x 90 cms. This square is sought after by lovers and collectors of Hermès squares. Very good condition of conservation and use, no holes, no pulled threads, the rolled edges are well inflated, see details on the photos. Free shipping

Dealer

Le Lys et l'Epée

Art premier, Memento Mori, Judaica, Maçonnerie, Militaria, Bijoux, Mode

Tonnay-Charente 17430

for France, International shipping, price on request depending on the area of the country Visit my other Hermès scarves and other objects in my gallery and on our website:
<https://www.IrisAntik.com>