

Pair Of Antique Women Gouaches Allegory Flowers Landscape Fecit Caroline XIXth

500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Length : cadre 32,7 cm x 28,2 cm

Width : dimensions gouaches 21,7 cm x 17,5 cm

Description

Pair of gouaches depicting women dressed in antique style (Vestals) in romantic landscapes: one places her flowered basket on a fluted column (perhaps Allegory of the Altar of Friendship); the other pensive at the foot of an urn-amphora (Allegory of Sensitivity or Ode to Love), signed Fecit Caroline (perhaps for the painter Caroline Von Der Embde), from the 19th century.

Dealer

Luc de Laval Antiquités

Ancient furnitures, Collectibles 18th, 19th

www.antiques-delaval.com

Tel : 02.96.12.19.02

Mobile : 06.09.70.26.39

22 rue Colvestre - BP 26

Tréguier 22220

These gouaches are in good condition, as are their gilded wood frames. They are under glass.

Signed in the landscape,
see photos.

Please note: some minor accidents and wear on the frames, wear and tear over time, see photos.

* Caroline Von Der Embde (1812-1867):

daughter of

August von der Embde (1780-1862), the principal portrait painter of Kassel, capital of the Elector of Hesse, in Germany. Representative of German Romantic painting of the 19th century;

Artist highly rated on artPrice

Data sheet

Cadre 32,7 cm x 28,2 cm

Dimensions gouaches 21,7 cm x 17,5 cm