Description

Elegant Persian Kashan rug, hand-knotted in wool, dating from the late 19th - early 20th century. The design features the classic central star-shaped medallion, surrounded by a dense composition of floral and arabesque motifs, framed by a finely decorated border. The rich and harmonious color palette combines deep reds, midnight blue, ivory, and lighter highlights, enhancing the refinement of the overall composition. Size: approx. 208 × 140 cm Condition: good overall condition, with normal signs of use consistent with age.
